SPEAKER BAACK: Yes, Madam President and colleagues, before I make a motion to adjourn, I would like to encourage people to get lots of rest over the weekend because the next three days are going to be very long days. We're going to put in some very long hours. We've got a lot of work to do yet before the session is over and I do want to remind people that any amending that is going to take place on any bills has to be done in those first three days and probably on the third day, on the eighty-eighth day we, depending on how many bills we send up to bill drafters' office, we may have to quit amending bills by five, six o'clock in the afternoon because all bills have to go up and be back to us before midnight that night. So plan accordingly. If you have amendments that aren't necessary, be thinking about whether or not you want to pull those kind of amendments to make the process move a little smoother when we come back on Tuesday. With that, I move that we adjourn until Tuesday at 9:00 a.m.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Speaker Baack. You've all heard the motion to adjourn. All those in favor please say aye. Opposed nay. We are adjourned until 9:00 a.m. Tuesday morning.
